
Payment services - Private/Corporate
One-off payments at branches1. Deposits on an account*General description

If you make a deposit on an account with Handelsbanken, the money will become available to the beneficiary immediately. This applies also to deposits made at branches on a Saturday.

If you make a deposit on an account with a different bank on a weekday before 2 p.m., the money will become available on the beneficiary account later the same day. If you make a deposit on an account with a different bank on weekday after 2 p.m., or on a Saturday, the money will become available on the beneficiary account on the morning of the next weekday.

The payer's right to revoke or correct an order

When the Bank has registered your deposit, the deposit cannot be revoked. This applies regardless of the time that the deposit is made.

If the Bank has made an incorrect registration which has meant that your deposit was not executed, or was executed with the incorrect amount, you are entitled to have the transferred amount repaid immediately.

If you have submitted incorrect details of account numbers or other information essential to the deposit, and this has meant that your deposit did not reach the beneficiary, the Bank cannot refund this amount. However, at your request, the Bank can take measures to recover the amount. For this service, the Bank charges a separate fee.

Fees
